(e) by when a final decision is likely to be taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. B. CHAVAN): (a) to (e) Some participants in the 21st Central India Horse Mutiny were mistakenly sanctioned Freedom Fighters' Pension under the Freedom Fighters' Pension Scheme, 1972. Their pension was suspended in 1976 because the 21st Central India Horse Mutiny was not recognised for grant of pension under the cnetral pension Scheme. The question of recognition of various army mutinies including the 21st Central India Horse Mutiny was considered on several occasions during the period 1974-83 and it was decided not to recognise the same under the central pension Scheme.

The matter was considered again in all its aspects by the Government on 17-2-94 and it was decided to introduce a Special Pension Scheme to assist the participants in seven army mutinies including the 21st Central India Horse Motiny. The Special Pension Scheme provides for grant of Special Pension @ Rs. 900/- per month with effect from 1-8-93 to the participants in these mutinies including the widows of those who were sentenced to death or have since passed away, subject to verification of their particulars/sufferings by the Ministry of Defence.

Special Pension has so far been sanctioned in 64 of the 104 cases relating to the 21st Central India Horse Mutiny verified by the Ministry of Defence; in I case clarification has been sought from the applicant and in 39 cases, receipt of Identification Documents is awaited.
